ATTENDANCE AND ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES:

It is the responsibility of the STUDENT, not the instructor, to arrange for make-up work. You must make arrangements to make up your work on the first day of your return to class. The make-up work must be completed as soon as possible.

The instructor reserves the right to make any changes to the Course Information Sheet he perceives necessary to facilitate the delivery of the course material and student learning. The class will be notified if any changes occur.

"Class Participation in this course is MANDATORY. Students must maintain a class participation rate of 85% for all daily assignments, class discussions, unit tests, lecture and laboratory quizzes, class projects, and all other assignments, or face a grade of "F" at the end of the term.

It is the student's responsibility to "W" (withdraw) from the course when he/she feels they cannot meet the class participation standard. This withdrawal process will no longer be initiated by the Instructor.

Students must remain in constant contact with their Instructor to understand what their class participation status is at any time during the term.

Students wishing to Withdraw must file a Schedule Change Form with the Admissions Office.
